Great Hockham News Sheet

Issue No 556
January 2025

Editorial

January again; where have the last twelve months gone? It seems like only yesterday that we were wishing everyone a happy new year, for last year. It's time for new year resolutions which, with any luck, will last until February.

It's also time to thank all those people who help in getting In-Touch through our readers' letterboxes each month.

We depend on our advertisers and the kind people who donate money to keep us financially viable. Also, we have to thank the people who take the time to send in articles for us to include each month. We depend on the co-operation of the school and its staff to allow us to print our issue each month, and on the hardy delivery ladies and gentlemen who put some parcel delivery drivers to shame.

I would also like to thank my fellow committee members for their hard work throughout the year.

Finally, a special thank you to all our readers without whom we would all be redundant. We appreciate every one of you.

If anyone knows of other people who would like to have a paper copy of In-Touch each month, please tell them to contact any committee member with their name, address and telephone number and/or e-mail address. The list of committee members is at the bottom of the last page of each issue. The same applies to those who read us on the village website, but would prefer a paper copy.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU ALL

Thank You

Many thanks to Richard and Moira Stevens and to Sue and Bill Smith for their generous donations to In-Touch funds.

These are very much appreciated.

Happy New Year.....

Can you believe it? Another year has gone.

Many of us begin the New Year by making New Year's resolutions, don't we? For some, those resolutions will actually produce real change – if, of course, we stick with it. That's always the hard part. For me, I've never been big on New Year resolutions, because I know that I'm not very good at sticking to them, particularly if chocolate has anything to do with it! But I do find that starting a New Year is a great opportunity to ask if there are any changes I need to make in my life and in my relationship with God, my family and my friends.

In the church calendar, the New Year begins in Advent, and the Christmas Season ends with Epiphany in January. Epiphany is the likely time when the kings (wise men) came from afar to offer gifts to Jesus, the new-born king. There is awe and wonder in the story of the wandering magi being led to Jesus from the distant East by a star. It testifies to the far reaching, indeed global and cosmic implications, of Jesus' birth. Even more, it witnesses to God's commitment to reach out to all the world with His redeeming love. This year we shall be celebrating Epiphany at a special Carol Service at St Peter and St Paul, Griston on 5th January at 6pm, to share in the joy of the three wise men as they find the baby Jesus, the vulnerable God as a human baby, lying in a manger. You are all most welcome to attend.

But what about those gifts – gold, frankincense and myrrh? Some might think these gifts were not appropriate for a baby or a child, when actually, these gifts from the magi couldn't be more appropriate. Gold is the sign of kingship, frankincense, a costly incense, representing wisdom and priesthood and myrrh is used for anointing the dead. Each of these is symbolic of Jesus – his kingship, his priesthood and his sacrificial death for all of us – as a foretaste of his redeeming work through his death and resurrection which we celebrate at Easter.

I think Epiphany also gives us a chance to refocus on the gifts, skills and talents we already have and how we might use them to support and care for others. So, at the start of this New Year, perhaps we could take another look at our response to God for the gifts and talents He's given us, and then reconsider how we use them.

The wise men went home by another road, because they'd learned of Herod's evil plan to kill all babies aged two and under in Bethlehem and nearby areas. I believe that the magi's world view will have been changed forever by their encounter with Jesus. And I think that we too have an opportunity to walk a different road this year: a road where we can make the King of kings the living, active centre of everything we are and do as individuals and as a church, and a road where we might make a difference to others, to reach out to those in need, giving our time and talents to support the most vulnerable.

With love and prayers,

Vanessa

Community Car Drivers Needed

Hockham has a well-used community car service that helps take residents who have no transport, to get to medical based appointments. The scheme is run from the parish council by David Sumbler who along with his other drivers do a magnificent job. However, we need more drivers so we can satisfy all the requests we get.

If you are interested and want to know more then please either email hockhampc@outlook.com or call the clerk Chris on 07770710307 or ask David who will help explain the role.

Overgrown Hedges

The parish councillors would like to advise that during the winter, is a good time to consider addressing any overgrown hedges that affect the village footpaths or highways.

The official bird nesting season is from 1st Feb to 31st August so January is the best time to get this sort of job done.

Defibrillator

The defibrillator is located in the telephone box by the Village Green.

Press the button to the right of the unit to connect to the emergency services who will give the code to unlock the cabinet.

Breckland Ward Boundary Review

Breckland Council have recently published draft recommendations for new wards, ward boundaries and ward names on their website, including a draft recommendations map.

They are inviting comments on those recommendations – closing date 24 February 2025.

As a result of their draft recommendations for new warding patterns they propose making changes to the parish electoral arrangements for the following parish and town councils:

- Attleborough
- Griston
- Swaffham
- Thetford
- Watton

The potential boundary change is quite significant for Hockham as we become a new ward with very different boundaries. (See map attached to this newsletter).

You can take part in the consultation via the “Have your Say” button on the following website:

www.lgbce.org.uk/all-reviews/breckland

Each submission will be weighed against the legal criteria which must be followed when drawing up electoral arrangements:

- To deliver electoral equality: where each councillor represents roughly the same number of electors as others across the authority;
- That the pattern of wards should, as far as possible, reflect the interests and identities of local communities;
- That the electoral arrangements should provide for effective and convenient local government.

Any views submitted should include evidence supporting the submission.

Norfolk Wildlife Trust Breckland Local Group

Last month we had a slightly different but very interesting talk by Lynne and Tony Fry. They spent some time living and working at Hilfield Friary in Dorset, where the community manage the land and grow their own food sustainably and working with nature.

This also sounds a lovely place to stay if you need some peace.

This month we will be instructed on Conserving Norfolk's Adders - but at least they're hibernating so they won't be joining us!

2025 kicks off with NWT CEO Eliot Lyne talking about the Trust's vision for the future.

This is Wednesday 8th January at 7.30pm, The Methodist Centre. High Street, Watton. IP25 6AB.

Cost is £2 members £3 non-members.

We wish you all a Happy, Healthy and Peaceful New Year.

Reflections and Olfactory Thoughts on the Season's Christmas Trees

We had a great season with the Christmas trees at Manor Farm, and I wanted to thank all of you who chose to come to us for their tree last year. Now we will quietly tidy up the plantation, replant with little seedlings and then the wildlife will have domain throughout the spring, summer and autumn.

Most artificial trees travel from a Chinese factory to a British landfill - via somebody's home. So it is good to know that the real trees of Great Hockham provide a home for 17 species of nesting birds, and mammals from the tiny 4g harvest mouse to the massive 200 kg red deer - although I wouldn't want too many of them in the field! Our trees are not quite organic, but are as close as we can reasonably get.

Something different last season, was a focus on the scent of the different tree species, and how important this is to people. I thought you might be interested in a fun summary!

I have worked with Christmas trees for over 50 years and have created a 'scent guide' to the subtle differences between the tree species. The Norway spruce is the traditional species that most of us grew up with. For me it is the most Christmassy, with a wonderful aromatic, piney, walk-in-the-woods scent. Nordmann fir is now the most popular species and offers a light, deliciously sweet orange marmalade with soft herbal tones - hints of rosemary, perhaps thyme. Omorika spruce is a new species that offers a well-rounded, smooth, rich, spicy scent - with hints of lemon, and for me it is earthy and comforting. The Colorado Blue spruce is by far the most heavily scented and perhaps the 'Marmite tree' as it is so strong that it is too much for some people. It is all about the wild and adventure, energising, bright, refreshing with a rich lemony spices and herbs tang.

This year I have researched the question of why the scent is so important, by asking people what it is exactly that a real tree's fragrance gives that makes it such an important part of their Christmas? The answers were surprising, and split between the subtle differences between the different Christmas tree species and an unexpectedly huge, more general emotional response. For most of the people I spoke to, the scent of a real Christmas tree evoked joyful memories of childhood, warmth, comfort, excitement, belonging and cherished family time together. And this positive, stress-busting, effect might be more important now than ever.

It seems that for many people a real tree is not just a product, but a full experience - that lasts right through the festive season. That wonderful Christmassy scent is something we can appreciate and enjoy, as have all the generations before us - Happy New Year!

BOOK CLUB

At the meeting on 3rd December where we welcomed two new members, the book under discussion was Daphne du Maurier's Rebecca, which had been read and thoroughly enjoyed by almost all the nine attending. In this gripping story of secrets, jealousy, lurking menace and flawed characters there was some support voiced for Maxim, Rebecca had found favour but only up to the brutal riding incident, and the unassuming Frank was named favourite character for his gentle, considerate nature. No new library book was issued for December.

The raffle was won by Leonie who took home first prize while Carol's cute Xmas crochet was won by Pammie.

Shirley announced her intention of giving up the role of Book Club administrator after three years and the gauntlet was promptly picked up by new member, Tina, who will take over ready for the next meeting on Tuesday 7th January.

The idea proposed for the next meeting is a novel one (sorry, couldn't resist): that of a book swap. Members are asked to select one (or more) of their own books to bring to the January meeting, give their reasons for recommending it, loan it out and take someone else's book to read.

Thanks go to Shirley for masterminding the setting up and running of Book Club, and a big welcome extended to Tina as she takes over the reins.

A Happy New Year to all Book Clubbers!
